INDIAN WOMAN AND CHILDREN STARVING

Port Arthur, Ont., April 7.—William McKlerdy confirms a story that an Indian woman living north of here, cut a piece of flesh from her body in an effort to procure food for her children, when they were starving.

"The woman and children were in desperate straits. The last scrap of food had been eaten days before, and there was no game, though the woman hunted until her strength was gone. In this pitiable condition, she secured a knife and cut a strip of flesh from her body. This flesh she used as bait with which to catch fish and thus sustained life until help arrived."

DRIFTING IN SIXTY MILE GALE

Barge With Four Men and a Woman Aboard Is Helpless on Lake Erie

Sandusky, Ohio, April 7.—The barge Norman Kelley, with four men and a woman aboard, is drifting helplessly before a sixty mile gale off Kelley's Island. The barge broke away from her dock at Kelley's Island early today as a result of the high wind and heavy seas. A tug from here is attempting to rescue the barge and its crew.

The barge was last seen near here at noon today when it was being carried swiftly to the northeast. The members of the crew were then standing on the deck waving frantically to their friends on the island.

Their names are Joseph Ence, Charles Todd, Mrs. Woods and a deckhand named James. All of them are from Cleveland.

Captain J. N. Todd, owner of the drifting barge, summoned the steamer Secor from Sandusky to the rescue. The boat was driven back by the wind when twenty miles out. The passengers are at the mercy of the water. There is no way by which they can change the course of the boat as it is without an engine. Neither are there any provisions aboard.

AUTHORIZED ISSUE OF STOCK

Southern Pacific to Put Out One Million Shares $100 Par Value

Louisville, April 7.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Southern Pacific company was held today in the office of the company, at Beechmont, a suburb. Directors were elected, and the stockholders voted to authorize an issue of $100,000,000 worth of stock, consisting of one million shares at $100 par value each.

The meeting was attended by A. K. Vandever of New York, treasurer of the company, E. E. Hixon of New York, Judge A. P. Humphrey, general counsel, Louisville; J. K. Weaver, secretary, Louisville, and A. P. Humphrey, Jr., Louisville.

Practically all of the stock was represented personally or by proxy.

The fifteen directors of the corporation for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

Charles A. Peabody, New York; W. Bayard Cutting, New York; H. W. DeForest, Oyster Bay, New York; Maxwell Everts, New York; Robert Golet, Newport, R. I.; Edward H. Harriman, New York; Marvin Huggitt, Chicago; H. E. Huntington, San Francisco; Robert S. Lovett, New York; Clarence H. Mackay, New York; Ogden Mills, Staatsburg, N. Y.; William Mahl, New York; W. V. S. Thorne, New York; Frank A. Vandever, New York; and Robert Walton Golet, Newport, R. I.

The additional stock issue mentioned will be one million shares of $100 each, and may be had by the bondholders of the company in exchange for their bonds at $130 a share. The transfer books of the company will be re-opened at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for the transfer of stocks, having been closed for the purpose of the annual meeting since 3 p. m., on March 15 last.

Small Change Wanted.

The early Sunday morning passenger on the surface car stood out on the rear platform and chatted with the conductor.

"Are you always loaded with small change like that?" asked the E. P., as the conductor shifted a handful of dimes and nickels from one pocket to another, to keep himself from listing.

"Not always," said the conductor, with a snort of disgust. "Only Sunday mornings."

"Why Sundays? That is generally understood to be a day of rest."

"Everybody wants small change for church," he explained, "especially the women."

Serious Omission.

The two old neighbors had met on the street.

"Mornin', Sam," said the first. "I hear your son Bill has got through college successfully."

"Yep," said the other.

"Learn anything?"

"What he got out of it chiefly?"

"He kin speak seven languages."

"Fine!"

"O, I dunno. Trouble is they forgot to teach him any ideas to express with 'em."

The Horrid Man's Curl.

"There's no sight so pitiful to me," said the pretty girl, "as the painful attempt on the part of the man beginning to be bald to make a little curl in the middle of his forehead of the few remaining strands of hair. And still, I know they don't deserve any pity. I never have found a man yet with such a curl who wasn't horrid."
